* All of the $0.52 distribution paid on January 3, 2019 to shareholders of record on December 24, 2018 was deemed to be applicable to the 2018 tax year for the Company to meet its IRS distribution requirements. As a result, $0.52 per share was reflected in the shareholder’s 2018 tax year 1099-DIV and none was reflected in the 2019 1099-DIV.

 A portion of the $0.38 distribution paid on January 3, 2020 to shareholders of record on December 23, 2019 was deemed to be applicable to the 2019 tax year for the Company to meet its IRS distribution requirements. Taxable Income Eligible for Qualified Dividend Income (QDI)

For the 2019 tax year, 35.36% of the dividends reported as taxable income to each shareholder on their 1099-DIV are eligible for Qualified Dividend Income (QDI) treatment. As a result, a portion of your ordinary income dividend may be taxed at a reduced capital gains rate rather than the higher marginal rates applicable to ordinary income. To treat a dividend as qualifying for lower rates, you must have held your shares on which you received the dividend for at least 61 days during the 121-day period beginning 60 days before the ex-dividend date of the distribution.

Please see your 1099-DIV for the amounts applicable to you.
